WILSON VETOES PEACE BILL

NOTHING SHORT OF VERSAILLES TREATY WILL GAIN HIS APPROVAL

CHANGE IN PERSONNEL OF TONOPAH DIVIDE

On the 1st of June William E. Johnson will resume charge of the Tonopah Divide Mining Company's property on the Divide with which he was associated until he resigned to take charge of the Ben Hur. Charles C. Starr, engineer in charge, has resigned to accompany R. A. Julian, consulting engineer who retires to take a very important position with the Wingfield interests in connection with research work. Mr. Starr will be occupied with field work in the same connection and his headquarters will be at the company's office in San Francisco, although his family will spend the summer in Colorado. The matter was clearly set forth by Mr. Julian in an interview with a Bonanza scribe today. He said: "For several months past, I have been giving considerable of my time to experimental work in connection with a new process for purifications of fuels. This work has been constantly broadening in scope until it has become advisable to relieve myself of a portion of my present responsibilities in order that I may have the necessary time to devote to this new work."

"This matter was called to the attention of the directors some time ago and now that Mr. Brougher has recovered from his recent operation and can again give more attention to the affairs of the company, a relief has been provided so that after June 1st, I shall no longer direct the development work of the company. "Apparently my resignation has been interpreted by some to mean that the property is to be under entirely new management. This is, of course, incorrect. Mr. Brougher, who has been President of the company since its organization, will remain as its head, and this change in the operating head does not in any way alter the general plans of the company to vigorously prosecute development work."

Memorial Day is sacred to our nation, when with tribute of praise and love the choicest flowers are gathered to cover the graves of the nation's dead. The Women's Relief Corps invites the little children to take part in this loving work that they may learn the patriotic lesson exemplified so loyally by their elders the men who made history. The Grand Army of the Republic, the men who fought for their country and defended the Glorious Flag.

The services will be at the Air-Force on May 30th, at 4 p. m. The following program will be rendered. Bugle call. Invocation by Rev. H. I. Graf.

Solo—Mrs. Kellher. Address Frank T. Dunne. Decoration of Cross to Unknown Dead by Corps. Song—"America." Taps.

These exercises precede the programme of the American Legion for which the veterans of the '60s will remain and join in and assist in decorating graves in the cemetery. The only reason for a separate programme is the use of the G. A. R. ritual prescribed for the day.

MIZPAH EX. HAS SOME RICH ORE

Considerable speculation has been indulged recently regarding the extent of the physical improvement of the Mizpah Extension operated under lease with the Halifax company. The development is likely to prove of the utmost importance but not enough work has been done yet to base any estimates as to the future although it is admitted by the management that the situation is regarded as highly satisfactory at the present time. The greatest work has been done on the Blue Jay claim where a new vein was opened up three months ago from the 1100 foot level of the Halifax. The vein is in trachyte which has been drilled on to date for about 125 feet with 50 feet of take on the vein. Values in the trachyte vary from good mill ore to a high grade rock. A vein in the upper workings of the Mizpah Extension, which was opened up some time ago has been recently opened to greater depth from the 1100 foot level of the Halifax and some very rich ore is exposed at the point where it was cut.

The president added that the peace resolution omitted mention of many important subjects for the consideration of which the United States entered the war.
